“ Luke & Nikki, I am so sorry for your huge loss, our huge loss of your father & our friend. Your dad helped me & many others with our struggles & likely saved my life. Mike will always be embedded in my heart. I am so very sad to know I will not be able to see his wonderful smile & hear his raspy voice here on earth. But I will feel his love, live my life a little better in honor of him and know that he is at peace with God where someday I will join him again! I Love You two & I am truly sorry I could not make there to be with you today. Know my heart, my soul & my spirit are with you in support during your grieving. Also know your father placed both of you above everything else in his life as he loved you more than he loved himself. Peace & Love, Vern Morin

“ My condolences to Michael's family. I just learned of his passing. I feel the need to share how inadvertently Michael helped save a life. I stoped by his Aunt Dot's while he recovered from a brain aneurysm. How he described stayed in my memory. When a friend called and said the same words years later I was able to get him to the hospital and he survived. We never know how our mere presence help each other. Catch a perfect wave today dear sir .

“ Thank you Michael for coming all the way to Sussex, UK to be a witness at mine & Danny's wedding. It was an honour to have you there & you charmed every single one of our guests.

Luke & Nicolette he was so proud of you ..told me so much about you both. I'm so terribly sorry for your loss. I've been trying to contact Michael for several years .. we used to chat on the phone every few months. I'm so sad not to be able to talk to him now..

He was a lovely man .. RIP

Happy to have ridden some waves with you, Michael

Love always

“ Today is May 31st 2017 I have just heard of my brother in laws passing, even though it was 2 years ago I just am overwhelmed. I had a VERY special bond with him we kept in touch over the years . He was such a free spirit , he adored his children , and I will never forget him, Everytime I hear of Ocean City I think of him. Rest dear Michael, you will always be in my Tuni (Scotts Wife)

“ Mike & I spent many great times together playing with his children when they were very young, surfing, meetings, late night deep conversations, helping others & just hanging out being friends. God knows my heart is heavy today. The video was so heart wrenching for me to see yet it allowed me to reflect on how much Mike meant to me. Mike helped so many to get through life on a daily basis for so many years, myself included. Mike helped save my life & I know God was working through Mike. Luke & Nikki I am so sorry for your loss. I know your father Mike is happy now as God has healed all of his wounds. God certainly has Blessed all of us by letting us have Mike for the time we had him & will bless him in his heavenly duties after his needed rest. Someday we can join Mike again. But until that time we can live a little better & a little longer in honor of Mike. Peace & Love, Vern Morin

“ My friend....who lead a simple life....loved his children and recent granddaughter. Loved to get lost in a good novel like myself. We shared the love of a good book often. My love and respect to the family. May you now rest in peace Michael.
