

Andrew J. Haiko

October 22, 1942 - August 21, 2025

Andrew J. Haiko, 82, of Springfield, passed away peacefully at home on August 21, 2025.

Andy was born in Drexel Hill to the late Andrew S. and Anna (Garchinsky) Haiko. He proudly served in the United States Marine Corps as a Lance Corporal during the Vietnam War. Andy began his education at Sacred Heart Grade School in Clifton Heights. He graduated from Monsignor Bonner High School and went on to earn his Political Science degree from St. Joseph's University.

A dedicated public servant, Andy worked for the United States Postal Service in Clifton Heights, West Chester then Paoli, faithfully serving his community until his retirement. Known for his reliability, kindness and strong work ethic, he was a familiar and friendly face to many throughout the years.

Above all, Andy was a devoted and loving husband, father and grandfather.

His family was the center of his life and he leaves behind a legacy of love, generosity and unwavering support.

He will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved him.

Andy is survived by his wife Jeannette (David) Haiko; children Dawn (Bryan) Willette, Tracy (Todd) Donnell, Sharon (David) Kistler, Andrew David (Jill) Haiko and Diana (Dennis) Kearney; grandchildren Luke, Eva, Jake (Anastasia), Sean, Maddie, Adam, Maya, Eli, Tessa, Mischa, Braden, Bryn and Molly.

The love he gave so freely will continue to guide us.

“ I remember Uncle Andy coming for lunch in the summer when I stayed at Nana and Pappy’s. He and Aunt Jeanette would always come watch my brothers play football. I loved to watch him and Aunt Jeanette dance at weddings. Much love and sympathy to everyone. What a great man!

“ I always remember when I would visit Nana and Pappy in the summer, Uncle Andy would come by and have lunch with us. He was such a great uncle. He and Aunt Jeanette would come to watch my brothers play football. I loved watching him and Aunt Jeanette dancing at weddings. They just knew each other’s steps so beautiful! Great memories and lots of love! So much respect and love. The world lost a good one! God bless!

“ I remember, as a kid, Uncle Andy taking us on rides at carnivals, going to the shore. He always liked being around kids. I remember being at Nana and Pappy's when he was in the Marines and he would come home on leave with his Marine friends. Good memories!

“ So many of my parents happy memories and stories involve "Andy and Jeannette". It's pretty amazing that our dads were friends since kids and that friendship extended to the wives and to the children. I've told Sharon that whenever I think of being around your family, I always felt a sense of calm, peace and gentleness. You walked through those doors and felt welcome and there were always great snacks! It would take decades for me to hear all of the wonderful memories and funny stories about your father from my parents and for that I'm grateful.
