

Ann M. Houston

July 26, 1942 - May 29, 2026

Ann M. Houston, a resident of Delaware County, passed away on May 29, 2026, surrounded by the love of her family.

Born and raised in South Philadelphia, Ann was the daughter of the late Louis and Matilda (Burke) Salerno. She carried her South Philly roots with pride throughout her life.

Ann spent many years working as a waitress in several different restaurants, and she cherished every moment of it. She loved the work, the people she served, and the lively rhythm of each day. Those years left her with countless fond memories and lasting friendships with the many lives she touched. Ann found joy in the simple, meaningful pleasures of everyday living. She loved cooking, shopping, and crocheting, often sharing her handmade creations with those she loved. Some of her happiest moments were spent at the shore, where she felt most at peace.

Above all, Ann was devoted to her family especially her grandchildren whom she loved dearly.

She will be deeply missed and forever cherished.

She is predeceased by her siblings, Louis Salerno, Thomas Salerno, Henry Salerno, Joseph Salerno and Joan Reese.

Survived by her daughter, Barbara A. Conrad; grandchildren, Cole and Sage; siblings, Katherine Tomlin, Rita Van Houton, Rose Crowley and Mary Salerno. Also survived by many nieces and nephews.
