

Anthony N. DiPrinzio

December 23, 1996 - January 21, 2024

Anthony Nicholas DiPrinzio, age 27, a resident of Newtown Square, PA was greeted into heaven with open arms by his late family and friends on January 21, 2024.

Anthony was a 2015 graduate of Saint Joseph's Preparatory School where he was a member of the crew team and a 2019 graduate of the University of California, Berkeley where he obtained a Bachelor of Arts degree with a major in Political Economy. Anthony was passionate and actively involved in the blockchain technology industry. His career began as a member of the Blockchain at Berkeley student organization which included a role as both Head of Consulting and President. Upon graduation, Anthony began his professional career at BASF chemical company as Head of the Blockchain Lab from 2019 - 2021. Anthony joined Aleo, a blockchain startup, in March of 2021 as Head of Growth. He was an integral part of the company's early development, establishing Aleo's partnership program and vibrant online community. In January 2024, he continued his professional career as Head of Business Development at Provable, the for-profit entity of Aleo.

Most recently, Anthony followed his pursuit of honoring his family heritage by attaining Italian citizenship. Anthony spent his professional and free time traveling the world. From the Bay Area to Turkey, South Korea, Portugal, Germany, France, Japan, the Netherlands, Greece, Israel, Iceland, Singapore, Vietnam, Colombia, Italy, Norway, and his current time in New York City, Anthony left a lasting legacy for all those fortunate to cross his path. Additionally, he was an avid outdoorsman and developed a passion for fishing in the streams of Delaware County, hunting in Wyoming with his father, and hiking all over the world.

Anthony was a remarkable son, brother, boyfriend, colleague, and friend. His vitality, dedication, and work ethic were inspirational. In addition, he had a great sense of humor and knew how to have fun, especially on the dance floor. Most of all, Anthony was a pillar of strength to anyone fortunate enough to know him.

Anthony is survived by his parents, Anthony and Angela (Pellicciotta) DiPrinzio, his brother, Nicholas DiPrinzio, and his remarkable girlfriend and soulmate, Cecilia Iversen. Although our hearts are heavy, they are filled with joyful memories Anthony left behind of a life well lived.

“ I am grateful for the opportunity to have known Anthony in so many capacities during my time with Aleo, finding each collaboration an occasion to appreciate his qualities even more deeply.

For community members, he was a visionary, bringing the innovative concepts of zk cryptography from UC Berkeley to audiences worldwide. His enthusiasm and curiosity were infectious, together with Sam, inspiring others to develop exciting projects within Aleo. I remember meeting Anthony at zkSummit 8 in Berlin, where he was incredibly engaged throughout the conference. In the afternoon, he gave global community calls, and in the evening, he ran the zkHaus in Berlin. Beyond zk, he sparked excitement about the benefits of dual citizenship, like his own Italian one, fostering a sense of global community and connection.

To his prospective colleagues, Anthony was a beacon of organization and warmth. Throughout the application process, his belief in the potential of zk applications and his confidence in our synergistic collaboration were profoundly inspiring. Reflecting back, I recall the serendipity of arriving in Seoul for a vacation, just after making the decision to accept the Aleo offer, and learning that Anthony was there for a conference. The prospect of meeting him and his instant support not only showcased his warm, approachable nature but also instilled a profound sense of belonging, reassuring me that I was indeed part of the right team. This sense of inclusion was further cemented when he warmly introduced me to the team during my first all-hands call.

To his colleagues, Anthony was an ever-present source of help, creativity, and enthusiasm. If the Statue of Liberty wasn't next to his Slack name, it would be replaced by the flags of distant countries. Whether in Paris, London, or San Francisco, no matter where my otherwise remote work took me within half a year, Anthony was the colleague who was always there. I fondly recall his support late into the evening after the zkSummit 10 in London, as we discussed presentation slides for the next day's zkHouse workshop. Our collaborations were not only productive but deeply enjoyable. Anthony's creativity brought life to everyday occurrences, leaving memorable impressions through his humor and the pleasure of his company.

Thank you, Anthony, for your lasting impact, your unwavering support, and the unforgettable memories.

“ Angela, Tony, Nicky:

Words cannot express the sadness and heartbreak we feel for you in losing Anthony ! He was one of the kindest we had the privilege to know. He was a true gift from a little boy into adulthood! Always a pleasure seeing him, talking to him and spending time during holidays and special events! So amazed and proud of who he was! Not only incredibly intelligent but all around well rounded. He accomplished so much during his short time here with us and remained humble and grounded. You raised a beautiful boy as you are. He will be safely missed and fondly remembered. Thank you for sharing your beautiful son and brother with us and the World. May he rest in eternal peace and watch over us . Prayers and Love Marino, Lucianne, Gabriella, Gaetano, Adriano ❤️🕊️🙏 Until we meet again.

“ Dearest Angela, Tony, and Nick,
This passage is written with broken and sorrowful hearts for the untimely passing of your beautiful Anthony. Words cannot express our deepest unending sympathy.
Anthony will always be a shining beacon for all who have known and loved him and for those whose lives have been forever touched by his presence- his wit and dry humor, his amazing intellect, his caring and compassionate ways, his kindness, his infectious smile and laughter, his zest for life and adventure, and so much more...
Chris and I have been blessed to know Anthony as a dear brother and son. God has called him home much too soon. In his 27 years, Anthony has lived a Loving and Purposeful Life. He will live on in all of us. Our love for him is eternal. Anthony will be missed until we meet with him again.

“ Dear Angela, Tony, and Nicholas,

It is so hard for me to imagine that Anthony is not with us anymore. I will always think of Anthony as being a very respectful, and hard working student in my third grade class. He was young, and indestructible and always full of life. Anthony was so smart and he really cared about his grades and he earned highest distinction in his class at Culbertson Elementary School.

I am carrying a weight now in my heart that will be with me forever. Losing such a remarkable young man makes me very sad. I am shocked and devastated. I loved Anthony dearly. He was a beacon of strength, courage and an inspiration to everyone he met. He will always remain in my heart, and his legacy will live on forever. Anthony was a beautiful light in our lives and may his spirit continue to shine in Heaven with God. May God keep you in his care.

Tony, Angela & Nick, I cannot express in words my shock and devastation on hearing the news of Anthony's passing. I cannot imagine the profound grief you are going through. I can say that I am grateful and blessed to have met Anthony and given the opportunity to see him go from the shy and timid soccer player to the successful and legendary business man. His presence and example will carry on for infamy. I pray that the Good Lord will lift you up and give you Peace as you journey through these incredibly grievant times. God Bless you and the entire community that had the pleasure of knowing Anthony. Our deepest condolences. Bill & Kelly Short

“ Angela, Tony and Nicholas,
I have sweet memories of Anthony at Culbertson Elementary. Melanie was lucky enough to sit next to him in Mrs. Dawson's 4th grade class. Anthony was kind, caring and always willing to help, even as a young boy. His smile lit up the room. We were truly blessed to have known him. May he rest easy. Love to you all.

“ Dear Angela, Tony and Nick, So sorry to hear about the passing of Anthony. My first memory of him was on his Christening Day when my son Tim gave him a plastic Phillies hat that you get ice cream in. Anthony was always a kind, respectful, intelligent and all around great guy. He will be greatly missed. Love and hugs always. Maureen and family

“ Anthony will live forever in our hearts and I am fortunate to have known him. He was like another son to me and I was excited to be part of his and Cecilia's vacation to Japan. I will cherish the time we spent. Anthony's time with us was cut far too short, but he did live life fully and with purpose. My condolences to the DiPrinzio family - Angela and Tony you have brought a wonderful son to our world and he made Cecilia the happiest! The world was a more wonderful place with him in it. Love to the DiPrinzio family, Maria
