“ nana, i never got to say goodbye to you but you were one of the nicest people in this world and you deserve nothing but the absolute best. i wish i could just hear your voice one more time or even just that feeling of being able to tell you what's wrong in life and i know we were drifting cause i was getting older but i just wish i got that goodbye. i just wish i could talk to you one last time. tell you it's not all your fault and you are one of the strongest women in this whole world and you would do anything for anyone if they needed it, you wouldn't even hesitate and i know we're coming up on 3 years and i didn't believe it when damien said you were gone but going back and looking at those posts from when i was a kid and seeing everyone together again after all this time made me feel back home with you all again but everyone's gone now, no one really talks to each other and you were the one thing holding everyone together. i miss you so much nana, please know that. i'm sorry i never said goodbye
