

Clarence Richardson

March 22, 1924 - February 25, 2022

Clarence Richardson, 97, a longtime resident of Aldan, passed away on February 25, 2022.

Clarence was born in Morley, Yorkshire, England to the late Arthur and Nellie (Rhodes) Richardson. He proudly served in the United States Navy during World War II, seeing action in both the European and Pacific theaters. Clarence later worked for Sun Oil as a rigger until his retirement.

He enjoyed traveling, dancing, casinos, theater shows and woodworking. He loved tending to his vegetable garden and his dogs. A devoted and loving husband, father, grandfather, and great grandfather, he will be dearly missed by his family and friends.

Predeceased by his siblings Walter, Joan, Betty, and Doris and his first wife Theresa.

Survived by his wife of 30 years, Helenmae Richardson; stepson, Richard (Kathy) Simons; grandchildren, Kaitlin Simons, and Kevin Simons; great grandchildren, Kaory and Sayuri; and nephew, Charlie (Ellenor) McConnell.

Service & Interment: Private.

In lieu of flowers donations can be made to Shriner's Hospital at <https://donate.lovetotherescue.org>

Cemetery Details

Private

Tribute Wall

“ Clarence Richardson

October 22, 2023 at 05:57 PM