

Deborah Ann Fannin

October 22, 1957 - June 22, 2026

Deborah Ann Fannin, age 68, passed away peacefully on June 22, 2026.

Born on October 22, 1957, in Lansdowne, Pennsylvania, Deborah was the beloved daughter of the late Lawrence Fannin and Dorothy (Abadie) Fannin. A longtime resident of Clifton Heights, she was a proud graduate of Upper Darby High School and dedicated her professional life to caring for others as a Registered Nurse until her retirement.

Deborah was an avid Philadelphia Phillies fan who rarely missed an opportunity to cheer on her favorite team. She found great joy in caring for her home, tending to her gardens, maintaining her fish pond, and spending time with her beloved dogs. Her nurturing spirit extended beyond her career and was reflected in the care she gave to everything and everyone around her.

An adventurous traveler, Deborah enjoyed exploring both the United States and destinations abroad. Her travels took her to memorable places including Italy and Africa, where she embraced new cultures, experiences, and friendships.

Deborah will be remembered for her kindness, compassion, dedication to her family and friends, and her love of life's simple pleasures. She leaves behind many cherished memories that will continue to bring comfort to those who knew and loved her.

Family and friends are invited to celebrate Deborah's life and honor the lasting impact she had on all who were fortunate enough to know her.

Predeceased by her brother, Larry Fannin.

Deborah is survived by her longtime companion of 20 years, Medard J. Halfpenny; sister, Linda Fannin. Also survived by several nieces and nephews.
