“ Dolores was my loving and sweet cousin whom I will miss dearly. She always had a kind and encouraging word to say and I will treasure our phone conversations over the last few years when she was unable to leave home. Despite her health difficulties in her last years, she was always so positive and pleasant. She was the last of my Dad's generation in my family. I know she and my Dad are up in heaven with all our loved ones singing some Irish songs and raising a glass. I have so many lovely things Dolores made for us and I will cherish them always! Love you Dolores and thank you for all you were to me.

“ Just envisioning the joyful reunion of Buddy and Dolores...oh what a beautiful thing!!! They both had incredibly infectious smiles...I can't help but think that was one of their attractions to one another. I'd say "rest in peace" but that does not describe the reunion I imagine!!!
