“ Aunt Dee I will miss you very very much. I will always have the memory of the Xmas Luncheon at the Laurentians last year. I never saw you so happy and having so much fun. You entertained everyone at our table and even the carolers. I hope you still play bingo up in heaven. And still complain that you never win when you do. I will always love you

“ Aunt Dee:
I will miss you so much, in the last year going out to lunch was the greatest time ever. You always made us laugh especially when us cousins were talking and you always said I don't know what your saying and just looked at us nieces with a big smile. Rip Aunt Dee!
