

Dominick Martini

November 16, 1946 - July 24, 2022

Dominick Martini passed away on July 24, 2022. He was a resident of Drexel Hill formerly of Overbrook.

Dominick was born in Philadelphia to Pasquale and Adeline (Quintilliano) Martini. He was a graduate of St. Donato and St Thomas More. He had many pleasant memories of his days in both schools. Dominick was a proud Army Veteran who served his country during the Vietnam War. He was a Civil War enthusiast and loved to travel to the various battlefields. He was an avid Philadelphia Sports Fan. His year did not run season to season but sport to sport. Dominick was a loving husband, brother, brother-in-law, uncle, and friend. He will be dearly missed by all his family and friends.

Services and burial will be private.

In lieu of flowers, donations in Dominick's memory can be made to Padre Pio Shrine in Barto, PA -www.padrepio.org or to St Jude Shrine in Baltimore- www.stjudeshrine.org,

Tribute Wall

“ Dominick Martini

October 22, 2023 at 05:57 PM

“ Rest now, my dear brother Dominick. I will never forget your deep sense of integrity, razor sharp wit, courage of a lion, and generous heart of gold. Never one to suffer fools, you truly lived your ethics and had little time for any who chose otherwise. I am also deeply grateful for your exemplary service to our country. You always made us so very proud. Forever in my heart, you remain my major dude and cherished oldest brother. Until we meet again, love you eternally!

Alice Martini Doyle

Alice Martini Doyle - July 27, 2022 at 02:53 PM

i just learned on domenick's passing i am deeply shocked and saddened. we grew up together and he was a great, great friend. my prayers and love go out to him and the family

steven Bellano - September 06, 2022 at 07:20 PM

Hours and hours of half ball on Simpson Street. A dear friend whose passing has brought back so many memories of the "old" neighborhood. Rest in peace.

Anthony Borrelli - September 07, 2022 at 10:09 AM

RG

I remember playing on basketball teams with Dom in the rec leagues. Always a great guy, easy laugh. I have fond memories and stories that make me smile. RIP, my friend. God bless.

Richard Gaudiosi - September 07, 2022 at 03:37 PM