

Donald F. Maieron

June 26, 1945 - October 31, 2025

Donald Maieron (1945-2025) suddenly passed away on October 31, 2025, at the age of 80. Of Italian descent, he was born and raised in Germantown, PA, and spent most of his life in Philadelphia, a city he loved to share stories about. He was an honorable Army veteran, who proudly served during the Vietnam War, and an exceptional tradesman, who spent his career as a master painter for the City of Philadelphia as well as privately throughout the Main Line area. Above all, he was an incredible and unmatched Father and Nonno, whose love and support for his family was immeasurable. A man of extreme generosity, who dedicated his entire life being there for those he loved. A man whose masterpiece wasn't merely murals painted on a wall but in the values he painted upon everyone and everything he touched. Echoes of his infectious laughter will forever be heard, and the warmth of his unwavering love will always be felt. Words cannot express how much he was loved or how deeply he will be missed. Our hearts are broken.

He is predeceased by his parents, Mary (née Granozio) and Donnino Maieron, and his sister, Maria Maieron. He is survived by his two children, Gina Maieron-McCaughan (Robert) and Donald Maieron Jr. (Michele); his five grandchildren: Dakota, Austin, Donnie, Savannah, and Sienna. Services will be held Friday, 11/14/2025 at Our Lady of Perpetual Help Parish in Morton, PA. Viewing starts at 10am. Mass to follow at 11am with burial immediately after.

“ We are thinking of everyone as Donald is laid to rest today. He was the funny guy who made everyone laugh with his stories and the guy was always ready to lend a hand when you needed help. Once in a while, he would stay at our house (his Aunt Fay and Uncle Menotti) back in the 70s and slept in our room (his cousin Greg and me) and he would tell so many stories while Greg and I were trying to sleep and we couldn't because we would be laughing so hard!! That's the kind of guy he always was! Just like his Uncle Felix and his sister Maria!

May there be peace in your hearts knowing you have a special guardian angel, watching over you. May he rest in peace.
