“ I grew up on the same street as Eileen in the 60s and early 70s and we all hung out together in our early teens. I grew to respect Eileen at that time from her athleticism and intelligence and ability to compete with the guys in tag and flashlight tag along central Avenue, occasionally I would see her when I would visit the neighborhood and we gave each other. Great hugs, especially when I needed them as usually it was from losing someone that I was in the neighborhood. I'm so glad that we kept our sense of camaraderie over the decades, I held Eileen and her family in the highest regard Fran kosloski Wernersville pa

“ Eileen was my neighbor in Glen Mills for 14 years. I always saw her on her front lawn with her dog Shelby. She was kind to people and loved animals.
Always happy never critical of anyone or anything. She did not care for a change and was content with life, her friends, and her family.
May she rest in Peace.

I met Eileen last year when she move into Creekside. She lived across the street from me. I would see her most days when she went for her mail. We would alway talk and I enjoyed her company. She was the sweetest person and such a warm personality. I saw the police outside her house last Sunday night. I was devastated when I heard of her passing. I hope she is at peace and I will definitely miss her. Anne Marie Pettineo my deepest sympathies to her family.

I met Eileen about 13 years ago when I joined the women's Tuesday afternoon bowling league at Sproul lanes. She was one of the first women to introduce herself to me. We became fast friends as we bonded over our pets and then became better friends thru the years. We would go Costco shopping together, out to lunch and dinner and then started traveling together. She was one of the kindest, sweetest women you would want to know. She was always smiling, upbeat and ready to help in any way even before you would ever think of asking for help. Eileen's kindness, friendship and impact on my life will be sadly missed but always remembered. I will love and remember her always.
