

Eleanor St. Leger

December 30, 1933 - September 17, 2024

Eleanor St. Leger (nee Jennings), age 90, a former resident of Yeadon, PA and of Riddle Village in Media, PA, passed away in the comfort of her daughter's home surrounded by family.

Eleanor was born in South Philadelphia to the late Martin and Catherine (nee Seifert) Jennings. She attended St. Edmond's Catholic School and she was a graduate of West Catholic High School for Girls. After graduation Eleanor worked for the Naval Intelligence office at the Philadelphia Navy Yard. Eleanor returned to work for the government later in life, again at the Navy Yard, where she worked as an Executive Secretary. Eleanor's true calling and most long held occupation was that of loving mother to all three of her children and most especially as a beautiful tender loving caregiver to her son Joseph.

Eleanor was a longtime member of St. Louis Church in Yeadon, PA where she attended Sunday Mass and participated in weekly bible study. Eleanor treasured spending time with family and friends. She had a ready smile and a kind word for everyone. Eleanor enjoyed meeting new people, and in her much later years she enjoyed attending dances at the Knights of Columbus. Eleanor walked in faith, always expressing gratitude and glory to God for her many blessings.

Predeceased by her beloved son, Joseph St. Leger.

Survived by her daughters, Anne Marie (Michael) McKnight and Theresa (Martin) Shea; grandchildren, Michael, Michelle, Marty, Erin and Laura and five great-grandchildren
