November 9, 1990 - May 24, 2026

Felix R. Caraballo Jr., a beloved son, father, brother, and friend, passed away on May 24, 2026. Born in Santiago, Dominican Republic, Felix was the cherished son of Felix R. Caraballo Sr. and Ramona Alcequiez. He later made his way to the United States, where he graduated from Chester High School and built a life filled with laughter, love, and unforgettable moments.

A longtime resident of Collingdale, Felix was known for his natural gift for comedy and his incredible sense of humor. He had a way of lighting up any room he walked into, turning ordinary days into memorable ones. His jokes, his timing, and his joyful spirit were trademarks of who he was.

Felix was a proud Philadelphia Eagles fan, cheering loudly and passionately through every season. He also had a deep love for cars and found peace and happiness at the beach, where he enjoyed the simple beauty of the ocean.

Above all else, Felix loved his family. They were the center of his world, and he showed it through his loyalty, his warmth, and the countless moments he shared with them.

Felix leaves behind a legacy of laughter, love, and resilience. He will be deeply missed by all who knew him, and his memory will continue to bring smiles to the faces of those who were fortunate enough to be part of his life.
