

Francis J. Wallace

September 7, 1947 - December 11, 2022

Francis J. Wallace, age 75, a resident of Springfield for 39 years, passed away on December 11, 2022.

Francis was born in Philadelphia to the late Francis and Anne (Simaska) Wallace. He was a graduate of West Catholic High School for boys and Drexel University where he received a bachelor's degree in Accounting and an MBA in Finance.

He was married to Patricia Vogel on August 22, 1970. He served on active duty in the U. S. Army from March 1971 to March 1973 and was discharged with honors as a First Lieutenant. Frank worked in private banking as a commercial lender prior to his employment with the Treasury Department as a Federal Examiner with The Office of the Controller of the Currency. He retired in 2007.

For several years, he was an active member in the Springfield Lion's Club until 2019. He enjoyed traveling with his wife, reading, hiking, and biking. Francis was a loving husband, brother and uncle who will be dearly missed by all his family and friends.

Survived by his wife of 52 years, Patricia (Vogel) Wallace; sister, Anne Marie (Thierry) LeRoy; niece & nephew, David Leroy and Vanessa (Denis) Drago; great nieces & nephews, Mathis, Ethan and Ashley.
