

Genevieve V. Forte

January 11, 1932 - March 18, 2023

Born in Philadelphia Miss Forte was reared in Lester Pennsylvania, Tincum Township. She later lived in Chester Pennsylvania for many years before moving to Springfield Pennsylvania, where she lived for many more, before spending her final three years in Bel Air Maryland. She graduated from Eddystone High School in 1949.

Miss Forte had a long career as an Executive Secretary at Westinghouse Electric Corporation in Tincum Township, working there for over 30 years before retiring in 1986.

She loved traveling and did so extensively, visiting Egypt, Spain, Italy, France, Mexico, and much of the United States. An avid baseball fan, and longtime fan of the Baltimore Orioles, she loved attending Orioles games at Camden Yards in Baltimore, and would do so numerous times each year. She would also travel to Florida to see the Orioles in Spring Training in Miami, Ft. Lauderdale, and later Sarasota. Her love of baseball took her to many cities and stadiums around the country including Fenway Park in Boston, Candlestick Park in San Francisco, Busch Stadium in St. Louis, Yankee Stadium in New York, and several others.

A lifelong and devout Catholic she was a parishioner of St. Kevin's Church in Springfield.

She was the daughter of the late Daniel J. Forte and Genevieve T. Kaminski, and sister of the late Diane Marley, Lorraine Forte, and Dolores Forte. She is survived by her brother Daniel Forte
