

George Guarini

November 23, 1927 - January 30, 2025

George Guarini of Aldan, PA born on November 23, 1927 in Philadelphia to George Guarini and Philomena (née DiGiacomo), passed away peacefully on January 30th. He is survived by his beloved wife Florence (Floss) of 69 years, his son Paul Guarini and his daughter Anne Guarini (Kelly). He was predeceased by his siblings Joseph Guarini, Rita Falciani, Robert Guarini, and baby Richard Guarini. George is also survived by his sisters-in-law, Marge Gursky (Tom) and Marie Hackimer (Leonard) along with many nieces, nephews and extended family members.

George served his country honorably as a US Navy veteran of both World War II and the Korean War. Following his military service, he worked as a production manager for Mel Richmond Advertising, where he made contributions to campaigns for Campbell's Soup, Progress Lighting, Scott Paper and the original Philadelphia Flyers logo.

In his younger years, George's love for music led him to play the trumpet in a small combo. Being a lover of history and a Civil War buff, he enjoyed discussing battles with his son Paul and visiting civil war sites with his sister-in-law Marge and her husband Tom. He was also a loyal Philadelphia Eagles fan, holding season tickets during the team's tenure at Franklin Field.

Above all, George was a loving husband, father, and family man who cherished spending time with those he loved. His humor, dedication, and passion for life will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved him.
