

Jack Keefe

December 18, 1937 - June 1, 2026

Jack Keefe, passed away on June 1, 2026. He was born on December 18, 1937, in Philadelphia to the late John L. and Dorothy (Mahoney) Keefe.

Jack grew up in the city he loved and graduated from John Bartram High School. He went on to build a long and dedicated career with Barone and Rothrock Chevrolet, where he worked until his retirement. Known for his reliability, work ethic, and easygoing nature, Jack formed friendships that lasted decades.

A proud and passionate Philadelphia sports fan, Jack cheered faithfully for the Eagles, Flyers, and Phillies through every high and low. He also had a deep love for his dogs, who were constant companions throughout his life.

Above all else, Jack was devoted to his family. As a single parent, he raised his three daughters with unwavering love, strength, and sacrifice. They were his world, and he took immense pride in the family he built.

Jack was a longtime resident of the Westbrook Park section of Clifton Heights, where he was known as a friendly neighbor and a steady presence in the community.

He leaves behind a legacy of loyalty, resilience, humor, and love—qualities that will be carried forward by all who knew him.

Jack is survived by his children, Tracy (Ron) Dortone, Kim (John) Jackson and Jackie (Bryan) Cruieess; grandchildren, Ronald (Maggie) Dortone, Daniel (Grace) Dortone, Samantha (Bob) MacLaughlin, Nicholas Dortone, Jenna (Anthony) Dortone, Alexis (Nick) Cruieess, Bryan (Ryan) Cruieess, Isabella (Anthony) Jackson and Adriana Cruieess; great grandchildren, Ronald III, Hazel, Halsey, Naomi, Viola and Brinley.
