“ *Very sorry for your loss.
My condolences go out to the entire family.
I did have the pleasure of meeting you several years back while living next door to Jim and Liz.
May you rest in peace.*

*God bless

“ To the Cinaglia Family from Tom DeCarolis and Family,

*Big Jim and my dad were very good friends. The memories I have was we went crabbing with your Uncle Ed and we would come back to your house on Penn Street and our Mother's Rose and Mary would cook the crabs up. We will miss Jim! He was a great guy.
Prayers for your family.*

“ Living next door to the Cinaglia Family, I enjoyed talking football with Mr. C. Visiting my parents, years later, I would still see Mr. C., and we would talk H.S., College and esp Eagles football. He was proud that some of his grandsons played football and would attend their games. Mr. C. Had a lot of talent and passed on a scholarship to play football at Villanova to serve his country. He was that kind of man. My sympathies to all the Cinaglia family, Dan Cosgrove.

“ Jim was such a nice man. He sometimes helped us at St. Stephens, Clifton Heights dinners. Always a smile and funny comment. I last ran into him at Gentile's in Newtown Square a few months back. I know he will be missed. My thoughts and prayers to the family during this difficult time.

Jimmy was very handsome. This is Lisa Cinaglia-Borman, and he was my father and my deceased sister Michelle Cinaglia's father as well. I just recently started talking to him and we were going to meetup to talk. I am heartbroken that will never happen. I am very sorry for your loss as well. He talked about you Helen all the time. He really loved you all. God Bless, Lisa

*“ I will never forget how patient Mr Cinaglia was with my mother in law, his neighbor, when she started declining with her health. He understood she was struggling and was so kind to her. This was a reflection of his true character.
