“ I remember, my Uncle Jimmy, being the funniest of the five brothers. Jim lived with my grandmom Gallagher in Prospect Park for many years when I was growing up all of the nieces and nephews would go to dinner on Sundays and holidays. visiting our cousins, the Kings in Philadelphia with all of my great aunts and uncles We would laugh and carry on. I remember spending weekends sometimes in the summer at Grams and I would sit with uncle Jim and watch TV while Gram and great aunt Teresa would be in the kitchen, and it always felt like a party. They would always ask me to sing for them, and I would run from the kitchen to the living room and had so much fun. They all treated me like I was the greatest thing in the world. My uncle Jim was a police officer with Darby Township, and he worked in walking distance from my parents house where I grew up in Briarcliffe / Glenolden. Uncle Jimmy would come to the house and park his police car out front. We're in the driveway and he would have dinner at our house and we would watch football games and talk and laugh. I know my Uncle Jimmy is in heaven with my Gram and his brothers Uncle Michael, Uncle Gene and Uncle Bob. I believe one day we will all be in heaven together again laughing and joking. May he rest in peace until we see each other again!
