

James W. Lassiter Jr.

November 29, 1950 - May 10, 2026

James W. Lassiter Jr., age 75, of Aldan, Pennsylvania, passed away surrounded by loved ones on May 10, 2026. Born on November 29, 1950, in Kissimmee, Florida.

James lived a life defined by dedication, service, friendship, and community.

A graduate of Darby Colwyn High School, Jim went on to serve his country in the United States Marine Corps during the Vietnam War. His strength, discipline, and loyalty remained with him throughout his life.

Jim was a longtime resident of Aldan and a respected business partner with Roman Furniture and Carpet in Clifton Heights, where he built lasting relationships with customers and colleagues alike through hard work and integrity.

An avid football fan, Jim devoted more than 20 years to coaching with the Drexel Hill Raiders. During this time he also served as a long time Board Member, Vice President and President of the organization. He was a mentor to countless young athletes, leaving a lasting impact on generations of players and families in the community.

Jim found joy in life's simple pleasures. He loved riding his Harley, spending time at his second home in the Pocono Mountains, taking cruises with family and friends, and doing jigsaw puzzles. He will be remembered for his sense of humor, steady presence, and deep love for those around him.

Jim will be dearly missed by all who knew and loved him. His legacy of service, friendship, and commitment to community will live on in the many lives he touched.

Jim is survived by his loving wife of 45 years, Cheryl (Pirato) Lassiter; children, Jimmy (Lori) Lassiter, Desiree Lassiter (Chris Gray), Amanda Lassiter, Gregory (Lisa) Lassiter and Tara (Pete) Falk. Also survived by many grandchildren and great grandchildren.
