“ Jim was a warm hearted individual. Always carried a great attitude and a laugh was never far from his interactions with us. He was one of our favorite customers. He was the "real deal" and our staff loved him as well. Although he will be missed mightily, his memory will remain alive in our lives and we are grateful for the privilege of knowing him. Our deepest sympathies to Cheryl and family. Maggie and Ed from the old "Clifton Deli".

“ The 2 most favorite memories I have of Uncle Jim was the first time I came home drunk as a teenager and my Mother told me the next day I had to go over Aunt Cheri and Uncle Jim’s house to wire brush his metal fence and paint it with a terrible hangover, in 90 degree weather and him asking me want another drink! The second is when I coach for MARPLE’s junior tigers when my son played and got to coach against Him and Greg while Amanda’s son played for the DH raiders it was an honor! Love you Uncle Jim I will miss you
