

Jane M. Donahue-Coulson

November 2, 1969 - December 2, 2025

Jane M. Donahue-Coulson, a resident of Wallingford and formerly of Clifton Heights, passed away peacefully on December 2, 2025. Born in Drexel Hill to Michael Donahue and to the late Anne Haggerty, Jane grew up surrounded by a loving family and a strong sense of community that stayed with her throughout her life.

Jane built a meaningful career as a manager with the Philadelphia Insurance Federation, where she was admired for her dedication, professionalism, and warm leadership. Her colleagues knew her as someone who could be counted on—steady, thoughtful, and always willing to lend a hand.

She found joy in many places, but the beach was where her heart truly rested. Long Beach Island, in particular, was her sanctuary—a place of sunshine, calm waves, and cherished memories with those she loved.

Above all, Jane was devoted to her family. She treasured every moment spent with them, and her deep love, guidance, and kindness will remain lasting gifts.

Jane's presence, warmth, and unwavering devotion will be deeply missed by all who knew her.

Predeceased by her mother Anne Caciola and sister, Nancy Donahue.

Survived by her husband, Warren J, Coulson; father, Michael Donahue; siblings, Thomas (Debbie) Donahue and Melissa (Chris) Brunetto; nieces and nephews, Aiden, Derek, Ashley, Kylie and Tyler; great niece, Brooke.
