

John A. Lorenzo

July 12, 1942 - April 23, 2026

John A. Lorenzo, age 83, passed away peacefully on April 23, 2026, surrounded by the love of his family.

Born on July 12, 1942, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, John was the beloved son of the late Anthony S. Lorenzo and Jennie (Folgia) Lorenzo. He was raised in Clifton Heights and became a proud graduate of Monsignor Bonner High School and Temple University College of Pharmacy. John went on to have a long and dedicated career as a pharmacist and co-owner of Strafford Pharmacy and Mackey's Pharmacy of Newtown Square alongside his brother-in-law, Jack Zweier. For over four decades, he built lasting relationships in the community, helping others and earning the trust of countless families.

John had many passions but most of all, he loved helping people and spending time with his beloved wife and family. He especially cherished time on 78Th street in Sea Isle City, NJ having clams and grouper on the deck, surrounded by his grandchildren. He will be remembered for his devotion, generosity, and countless special moments he shared with them.

A longtime resident of Springfield, John was known for his steadiness, kind heart, easy-going nature and effortless charm. He also had an extraordinary gift for storytelling, and anyone who knew him knew he loved to tell a good joke (thanks Grover!).

Predeceased by his wife and best friend, Christina, (Majkowski) Lorenzo.

Survived by his four daughters, Pamela (Thomas Traumann) Lorenzo, Louise (Joseph) Rossi, Christina (Christopher) Lorenzo-Crockett and Jennie (John Sutherland) Lorenzo; seven grandchildren, Luisa, Nina, Nick, Samuel, Olivia, Kyle and Noelle, sister Marie Zweier, and several nieces and nephews.
