“ The Memories I have with my father are infinite...BOJC NY chapter began allowing girls and my dad jumped at the opportunity to take me! I am a charter member and one of the first to go through the program! he was so proud. Tying flies, tying knots, his voice going “Set the hook set the hook!” He was hands on! And every year first weekend of June we had our awesome awesome trip to BOJC. While we were in Roscoe NY, getting our fishing licenses a man walks up to my dad and says “coffee?” And without skipping a beat my dad said, “sorry but I’m married” and I started laughing and he started laughing and harder and harder we began to belly laugh! Needless to say the man didn’t appreciate it, but in true form my dad said “ahh I’m sorry brother, I’m not sure!” And we went on to start our trip with an awesome breakfast at the Roscoe diner. And continue to laugh and make many more memories there after year after year! RIP dad I’m going to see you dad later I love you!
