“ Joe was a great help to me when I returned from Peace Corps service in 1995, generously sharing his home and treating me like family. I will never forget his kindness, ebullience, and enduring faith in the Lord, Jesus Christ.

Brother Joe will never be forgotten. In his young years when our father deserted us Joe stepped in to help our family after he returned from his service in the Coast Guard. He loved his family and was great brother and uncle. Love you Joey
