

Julie Lawley

October 25, 1938 - October 23, 2025

Julie Lawley, a longtime resident of Aston and formerly of Southwest Philadelphia, passed away peacefully on October 23, 2025, just two days shy of her 87th birthday.

Born in Philadelphia on October 25, 1938, she was the daughter of the late LeRoy and Ella (Beard) Lawley. Julie enjoyed a long and fulfilling career as a publishing editor before her retirement, where her keen eye for detail and love of language shone through in her work.

A woman of deep faith, Julie was devoted to her church and community. She found joy in simple pleasures—playing tennis, solving crossword puzzles, and spending quiet afternoons bird watching. A passionate traveler, she especially loved exploring Europe and experiencing its rich cultures and history.

Above all, Julia cherished time spent with her family, who were the center of her life and greatest source of happiness.

Julie is predeceased by her brothers, Donald Lawley, Leroy Lawley and Gene Lawley.

She is survived by her nephew, Lee (Elaine) Lawley; great niece and nephew, Taylor Lawley and Tom Digges; sister, Ella (Joseph) O'Shea; brother, Burton

Lawley. Also survived by several nieces and nephews.
