

Kathleen M. Holley

December 10, 1962 - October 22, 2025

Kathleen M. Holley, age 62, of Glenolden, formerly of Drexel Hill, passed away peacefully on October 22, 2025.

Kathleen was born in Philadelphia to the late George and Kathleen (Burke) Rogers. She was a graduate of Upper Darby High School and dedicated many years of her career to Wawa, where she worked as an Assistant Manager before retiring. She was known for her strong work ethic, warm smile, and the kindness she showed to coworkers and customers alike.

In her free time, Kathleen enjoyed volunteering at the 928 VFW in Folsom, where she formed many lasting friendships. She loved fishing, spending time outdoors, and had a deep affection for animals. Kathleen will be remembered for her generous spirit, sense of humor, and love for her family and friends.

She will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved her.

Kathleen is predeceased by her husband, William Holley; brother, George Rogers.

Survived by her siblings, Lillian Rogers and Donald Rogers. Also survived by her five nephews.

Services and Interment will be held privately.
