

Kenneth E. Hummel

December 26, 1933 - January 17, 2022

Kenneth E. Hummel, 88, a resident of Lansdowne, PA, formerly of Cliffwood Beach, NJ, passed away on January 17, 2022.

Kenneth was born in Paterson, NJ, to the late Ernest and Margaret (DeBoer) Hummel. He was a graduate of Barrington Bible College in Providence, RI, then attended New York Biblical Seminary in New York City, transferring to New Brunswick Theological Seminary in NJ, where he graduated with a Masters of Divinity. He later attended Glassboro State College, NJ, where he studied Library Science. Kenneth was a Methodist Minister for 35 years, until 1981, then worked as a Media Library technician at the University of Medicine & Dentistry of New Jersey for over 20 years. Kenneth enjoyed working with his hands at various crafts, such as woodworking, stained glass, and building models. He loved music, nature, animals, birdwatching, stargazing, doing yard work, taking walks, and bike riding. He had a great sense of humor and loved telling jokes and puns. For a number of years he participated in community theater groups, playing roles such as Jonathan Brewster in Arsenic and Old Lace, and the Rev. John Witherspoon in 1776. Kenneth was a loving husband, father and grandfather who will be dearly missed by his family and friends.

He is predeceased by his sister, Ruth Ryan.

Kenneth is survived by his wife of 65 years, Jean A. (McCarroll) Hummel; children, Catherine Hummel, Jonathan (Mary-Jo) Hummel, Karen (Mark) Grasso, and Judith (Bryan) Glass; grandchildren, Douglas (Laura) Hummel, Kristin (David) Shelton, Elizabeth (Jackson) Newcomb and Benjamin Grasso.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to a charity of your choice in his memory.
