“ Kenny was a very sweet guy. Growing up on the street, I was the youngest of the kids running around. He always took the time to talk with me, despite being so much older and taller than me. I appreciated that. A lot of the other kids didn't bother acknowledging me. He was six years older. I remember when he brought his horse to the woods behind the house, and let me brush him. That was HUGE! We reconnected on fb, and when my parents both passed he took the time to reach out and tell me nice stories about them. His presence will be missed. Rest in peace, Ken.

“ Big Ken was one of a kind, for sure. There was no one else like him. I will miss that thunderous laugh of his. He treated me like his own and would do anything he could for you. Every time I got sea sick and puked on his boat, he never complained. He always just laughed the next time I got on his boat, wondering why I kept coming back for more, knowing I would get sick again. Every chance I could, I'd go fishing with him. It wasn't the crabs, the fish or the ocean — HE was the reason I got back on that boat every time. Thank you, Big Ken, for all the memories and good times. Love you and will miss you. Hug Kenny and Debbie for me. - Rick
