“ Dear Juan and the entire Dracup family. I am so sorry to hear of Kerry’s passing. I know he suffered so much these last few years. I will always remember him with laughter and joy even among his troubles. I can still remember interviewing him for a teller job at Main Line Federal in Media - what fun we had. He then followed to Sanchez/FIS a few years later. I was blessed to have in my life as a friend for ~35 years.
You are all in my prayers.
My sincere condolences

“Juan, my deepest sympathy. Kerry battled for so long. I'm praying fun memories will comfort you in the quiet hours. I worked with Kerry on Profile and we shared many laughs and many mutual complaints!! Any time I worked with Kerry, I came away with a smile and clear understanding of the situation. May he rest in peace.
