

Mary A. Janco

June 11, 1932 - January 16, 2025

Mary A. (Wilson) Janco, 92, a beloved mom and avid Phillies fan, died Jan. 16 at Taylor Hospital in Ridley Park, PA after a short illness.

Born June 11, 1932, Mary was a graduate of West Catholic Girls High School in Philadelphia where she enjoyed performing with the Drama Club. She lived for many years in Ocean City, NJ where she worked as a school aide and later for Rauhauser's Candies. When she moved back to Delaware County, she worked for an answering service near her home in Lansdowne until her retirement.

Cheerful and outgoing, she could strike up a conversation with anyone and brighten their day. She was smart, funny, generous and quick with a compliment.

A Phillies fan, she also got hooked on football. She tried to never miss a Penn State game on TV, and kept up with the pro teams as well. She loved Aaron Rodgers and the Green Bay Packers, even without Aaron.

Mary enjoyed traveling. She took her daughters on road trips up and down the East Coast, with several trips to Williamsburg, VA, Florida and Disney World, as well as through New England and Canada. While living in Ocean City, she planned special family days on the boardwalk, often with lunch at Ready's coffee shop.

Mary was an avid reader, and enjoyed arranging flowers and decorating her apartment. She delighted family and friends with her colorful artwork.

An animal lover, she was always spoiling her grandpups. Her first cat, Dilly, was a stray Maine coon, who quickly worked his way into her heart and apartment. Her surviving cat, Abby, has been her faithful companion for many years.

She was the best mom, always knowing just what to say and do, no matter what. She was devoted to her daughters and will be missed so very much.

She is survived by her two daughters, Susan M. Janco and Mary Anne Janco.
