

Matthew McFadden

November 26, 1979 - May 5, 2026

Matthew “Bean” McFadden (46), a Darby native, passed away on May 5, 2026.

Born in Drexel Hill, he was the beloved son of Diane (Wozniak) McFadden and the late Thomas McFadden. Matt was known and loved by many.

Matt was a welder by trade, but really a jack-of-all-trades in every sense. He had a knack for figuring things out and could fix just about anything. Whether it was repairing something broken or helping a friend in need, he was a person you could count on.

Matt’s creativity didn’t stop at figuring things out. It also shone in the kitchen, where he could take a few unlikely ingredients and turn them into something unexpectedly delicious.

In his fight with cancer, Matt fought it on his own terms. He remained courageous, resilient, and true to himself until the very end. He was supported by his friend Mallori, who stood by his side through his illness and did everything she could to care for him.

Above all, Matt was known for his generosity, loyalty, and big heart. He was a steadfast friend, a devoted family member, and someone who will be remembered by all who had the privilege of knowing him.

Predeceased by his father, Thomas McFadden.

Survived by his children, Samantha McFadden and Jack McFadden; mother, Diane (Wozniak) McFadden; sisters, Amanda (Tom) McFadden, Monica (Dan) Bello and Haley (Josh) Fleming; nephew, Sonny Bello; friend, Mallori Layden. Also survived by several aunts, uncles and cousins.
