

Maureen D. Lawson

September 25, 1932 - August 31, 2025

Maureen D. Lawson, age 92, a longtime resident of Clifton Heights, passed away peacefully at home on August 31, 2025.

Maureen spent much of her working life at Merion Golf Club, where she was a dedicated employee until her retirement. She was deeply devoted to her family and found great joy in music, dancing, boating, and fishing. A proud member of the Primos Secane Fire Company Women's Auxiliary, she was active in her community and cherished the friendships she built over the years.

She is preceded in death by her sons-in-law, Charles Russo and Robert Marker; and her beloved grandchildren, Mark Ryan Marker and Britney Leigh Agostini.

Maureen is survived by her loving children: Noreen A. (Dennis) Quinn, James P. Lawson, John F. (Joanne) Lawson, Margaret M. Russo, Carol L. Marker, Linda L. (James) Branin, Sharon T. (Paul) Agostini, and Christine A. Watson. She was a proud grandmother of 16 grandchildren, 29 great-grandchildren, and one great-great-grandson.

Maureen's greatest joy was spending time with her large, loving family. Her warmth, laughter, and generous spirit will be deeply missed by all who knew her.
