

Michael P. Smalarz

June 12, 1979 - June 6, 2026

Michael P. Smalarz, age 46, a longtime resident of Springfield, Pennsylvania, passed away on June 6, 2026.

Born in Drexel Hill, Pennsylvania, Michael is the beloved son of Joseph and Mary

Beth (McNamee) Smalarz. A lifelong member of the Springfield community, Mike was a graduate of St. Francis of Assisi School, Springfield High School, Class of 1997, and proudly earned his degree from Saint Joseph's University. After college, Mike attended and graduated the Policy Academy.

Mike dedicated his career to public service and was currently serving as a Police Officer with the Marcus Hook Police Department. He was respected by his fellow officers and colleagues for his commitment, professionalism, and dedication to protecting others.

Outside of his career, Mike cherished spending time with his family, especially during trips to Ocean City, New Jersey. He was an avid Philadelphia sports fan and enjoyed cheering on his hometown teams. He enjoyed taking his daughters to Chickie and Pete's which they will forever cherish. Mike also found great joy coaching his daughters' softball teams and creating lasting memories with them.

Above all else, Mike was a devoted and loving father whose greatest pride was his children- Noelle and Everly. His kindness, loyalty, sense of humor, and unwavering love for his family will be remembered by all who knew him.

Mike will be dearly missed by his daughters, Noelle and Everly; his parents, Joseph and Mary Beth Smalarz; his sister, Kristen (Brian) Dwinnells; and his nieces, Ashlee and Meghan. He is also mourned by his extended family, countless friends, his brothers and sisters in blue, and all whose lives he touched.
