“ Nadine was my friend throughout high school and she was the Maid of Honor in my wedding. Although, unfortunately, we'd lost touch over the years, I will always remember her as being a loving and caring person. She gave her all to whatever she did. I offer her family my deepest sympathies and will keep Nadine in my heart and in my prayers.

Nadine was my cousin, and we unfortunately lost touch years ago. She was funny and kind. I wish I had known about her demise of nearly a year ago. We were The Baker Family, and the Daniels Family was our favorite relatives! Always fun. Uncle Mike, Aunt Marie, Marie, Nadine, Allen, and Debbie, are remembered fondly.
