

Paige Waddington

July 17, 1946 - November 11, 2021

Margaret Paige Schroeder Waddington, better known to all as Paige.

Born: July 17, 1946 in Baltimore Maryland.

Parents: Mary Virginia (Rash) Schroeder and Henry Schroeder

Lived in Springfield, graduated from Springfield High School (Delco) in 1964.

Attended Lindenwood College for Girls and graduated in 1969.

Paige enjoyed going “down the shore” and spent many summers in Avalon, NJ. That is where she met an Englishman named Geoff Waddington. They married at Covenant United Methodist Church on May 3, 1975.

Paige was a dedicated educator spending 35 teaching elementary school in Glenolden, PA.

After retiring, Paige’s passion for antiques turned into a business. She owned and operated Hourglass Antiques for 15 years until she finally retired in 2018 to care for her husband.

Other hobbies that did not turn into businesses included: sewing, calligraphy, tennis, gardening, and traveling with her friends.

She is survived by her four children, Trevor (Meredith) Waddington, Douglas (Anne) Waddington, Julie (Jason) Stolnis, and Brett Waddington along with eight grandchildren Colin, Andrew, Brooke, Kerris, Benjamin, Harper, and Caden.
