“ Pam was like my second mom. I met her through a mutual friend who also passed and it brought her and I so close. She treated me and my son so amazing. Every Christmas she had to make sure she got me slippers and they were the most comfortable things I've ever put on my feet. I would sit there and watch HSN with her and had to tell her multiple times that she didn't need specific things. I tried to make sure she got to her doctor appointments as much as I could. I never thought she was that bad. She always kept high spirits even when she was mad or upset. I took her dog when she went to the beach for the week And I'm glad she got to go because that was literally her last wish. All she wanted to do was go to the beach. I'm going to miss her so much and idk what I'll do without her. She was the ONLY one I could truly talk to. She left way too soon and I will forever love her and miss her.
