“ My daughters stopped at the cemetery today and was sorry to see new flowers on the grave site. We had to google to see who passed from Uncle Hughie's family.

We wanted to send you all our sincere condolences to your family on the loss of your Mom. (I am the wife of John Ed's cousin Rich Smith.)

I Knew your Dad a tiny bit from when he was volunteering at Holy Cross many moons ago. We will pass this info along to the Smith family.

“ I have so many great memories of Paula, the Mom. Always cooking enough to feed an army, letting us hang out, Christmas cookies, especially the year the dogs had the chocolate chip on the wrong end. My favorite is when I tagged along to Atlantic City, going to the Casino for the first time. She laid out the rules, play the max, play quarters, play the first machine that calls to you. We walked across the casino floor, I walked up to a machine and hit for 175. My first time in Atlantic city gambling was a blast, I loved the Show Boat and always think of her when playing.
