“ I'm just seeing this now, and I am so sorry to see of Ike,'s passing . He was a great guy and generous man along with his son Phil. I got to know Ike when he was bartending mornings at the Waverly Bar, I worked overnight at A Pathmark and always looked forward to seeing him when he opened up. He will be missed & rest easy Ike.

“ To this day, my daughter still thinks this ball was hit into the box....but Mr. Eichenger had a bag of balls in case kids came, and he just threw on the floor and pretended it was hit in the box, and gave it to my daughter 😊 the picture is still on my frig ❤️ a wonderful man in so many ways!

“ Phil, well there are so so many memories! Where can I start, from the days on Rively Avenue, to parties. Vacations, So many good memories. One of the favorite one not that you family enjoyed it but when you had your head shaved for a Dear friend when his hair fell out due to a chemo treatment and you wanted to look like him with no hair although it was the night of the father and daughter dance. Oh well that was you. Thank you so much for your friendship. Love you. Rest in Peace my friend.
