Rachel A. Koons-Twisler

Lab Analyst

Mrs. Rachel A. Koons-Twisler died on March 25, 2016, at her home in Springfield, PA after a 16 month battle with breast cancer.

Born in Darby, PA, Mrs. Koons-Twisler and was a 1989 graduate of Upper Darby High School as well as a 2001 graduate of Rosemont College.

She has resided in Springfield for the last 13 years. She was employed by Wawa Industries in Wawa, PA where she served as a laboratory analyst.

Although she was incurably ill she stayed fully alive and showed all of her loved ones the true meaning of bravery and acceptance. Her final days were spent surrounded by family and friends and she was lovingly cared for by her husband.

She is survived by her husband, Joseph Twisler, her children, Ariana, Raina, Alex, Max, and step daughter, Madison Blair, parents Tom and Maryann, a brother, Michael Koons, and many aunts uncles, cousins, nieces and nephews.

Relatives and friends are invited to her visitation on Saturday, April 2, 2016, after 11:00 am at the Kovacs Funeral Home, Inc., 530 W. Woodland Avenue, Springfield, PA 19064 followed immediately by a time of remembrance at 1:00 pm.

Inurnment will be private.

In lieu of flowers, donations for the care of Rachel's children may be sent to Maryann O'Brien, 153 Sherman Road, Springfield, PA 19064.

“ To Rachel's famil, my deepest sympathy for your loss. I knew Rachel since her days visiting her grandmother on Kathmere road. She and my sister became instant friends and because of their friendship I was able to reconnect with Rachel last year. I recognized her strength and will to live immediately and I will always remember that about her. Much love during this difficult time. ♡
