“ Coping with the death of a loved one is never easy. When Lazarus died, Jesus "groaned in the spirit and became troubled," and shortly afterward he "gave way to tears." (John 11:33, 35) So, when someone we love dies, it does not show weakness to cry. God will wipe out every tear from our eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. (Revelation 21:4). May the God of love comfort the Ingle family and friends.
