

Richard Bocchinfuso

October 30, 1940 - March 22, 2024

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Richard Bocchinfuso, of Springfield, Pennsylvania. Richard departed from this world on Friday, March 22rd, 2024, leaving behind a legacy of love, laughter, and cherished memories.

Richard was born on October 30, 1940, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, where he spent his formative years surrounded by family and friends. He was known for his vibrant and calming spirit, unwavering kindness, and infectious sense of humor. Throughout his life, Richard touched the hearts of all who knew him with his warm smile and cheerful nature.

Professionally, Richard excelled in all things mechanical; there was nothing he couldn't fix, and he had a long career as an electrician. His dedication and passion for his work earned him the respect and admiration of friends, colleagues, and clients. He approached every task with diligence and integrity, always doing it right and leaving a lasting impression wherever he went.

Beyond his professional achievements, Richard's greatest joy came from spending time with his beloved family. He was a devoted husband, father, and grandfather whose unconditional love knew no bounds. His family meant everything to him, and he cherished every moment spent together, creating memories that will be treasured for generations.

Richard had a zest for life that was truly infectious. He had a love for purpose and could often be found working on something. His adventurous spirit was limitless, and he approached every new experience with enthusiasm and excitement.

In addition to his passion for life, Richard was also known for his generosity and willingness to lend a helping hand to those in need. He touched countless lives with his acts of kindness and compassion, leaving behind a legacy of love and goodwill that will continue to inspire others.

Richard will be deeply missed by his loving wife of 53 years, Dolores (Marandola) as well as his children Richard (and wife Gwen), and Steven (and wife Hannah); and his 2 grandchildren (Madelyn and Eden), as well as a wide circle of friends and acquaintances who were blessed to have known him. Though he may no longer be with us in body, his spirit will live on in the hearts of all who were fortunate enough to have crossed paths with him.

Visitation: Wednesday, March 27th 9:30 am at St. Kevin Church 200 W. Sproul Rd. Springfield, PA 19064.

Funeral Mass: Wednesday, March 27th 10:30 am at St. Kevin Church.

Interment: SS. Peter & Paul Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, the family kindly requests that donations be made to Main Line Health HomeCare & Hospice in Richard's memory.

Richard's passing leaves a void in our lives that can never be filled, but we take comfort in knowing that he is at peace and that his memory will continue to bring us comfort and joy in the days ahead. May he rest in eternal peace, knowing that he was dearly loved and will never be forgotten.
