

Richard Carr

November 12, 1939 - February 4, 2024

Richard Carr, 84, of Springfield, Pennsylvania, passed away peacefully in his sleep at his home on Sunday, February 4, 2024.

Born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, he was a son of Gertrude Carr, wife of John Carr. He was a brother to Patricia and Ronald Carr. Married for over 45 years. Richard was a devoted and loving husband to his wife Nancy Kirstien Carr. He was a proud and loving father to Zachary Richard and Zara Alexis Carr. At a young age Richard obtained his Commercial Driver's License and worked as a commercial truck driver for over 30 years. He was proud of the fact that he could "drive anything". He drove his tractor trailer all across the United States. In fact, he visited all 50 states at least once.

Richie, as his family and friends called him decided one day he wanted to learn the jewelry business and so he did, becoming a jewelers mechanic and opening a repair shop on Jewelers row for a while in Philadelphia, he had an innate ability to work with his hands and self taught he created beautiful pieces of jewelry. Rich was a passionate motorcycle enthusiast, still cruising on his motorcycle well into his 70's.

Rich also had a lifelong love affair with the game of billiards. He played in numerous local events. He also learned how to design, customize and repair pool cues. His hobby bordered on business, as he was always buying, selling, repairing and customizing pool cues for himself and others.

Rich lived a simple life, he loved time at home with his family, and cruising on his motorcycle. He enjoyed watching the Phillies and summer vacations at the beaches and boardwalk of New Jersey. Rich loved spending time with his kids and grandkids, whistling to them, making them laugh with his silly faces and sense of humor.

He is survived by his wife Nancy, his children Zachary and Alexis and his grandchildren, Calvin, Mia, Hunter, Wyeth and Lila.

Gone but never to be forgotten, may his soul rest in peace knowing he left goodness on this earth.

Cemetery Details

Private