

Rita J. Bluebello

September 7, 1928 - August 21, 2025

Rita J. Bluebello, 96, a resident of Media passed away on August 21, 2025.

Rita was born in Philadelphia to the late Anthony and Josephine (Crescione) Mazeffa. She dedicated many years to volunteering at Riddle Hospital, where her compassion and kindness touched countless patients and staff. She was also an active and cherished member of the St. Mary Magdalen senior group, where her vibrant spirit and thoughtful nature made her a treasured friend.

A fantastic cook and 76ers fan, Rita found joy in the simple pleasures of life. She was a skilled bridge player and a devoted gardener, known for her uncanny ability to nurture even the most neglected plants back to life. Her home bloomed with beauty, much like the love she cultivated within her family.

Above all, Rita loved her family deeply and unconditionally. Her legacy lives on in the hearts of those she held dear, and her memory will continue to inspire love, laughter, and resilience.

Predeceased by her husband, James J. Bluebello.

She is survived by children, Jim (Linda) Bluebello and Debbie (Timothy) Dudek; grandchildren, Amanda Dudek and Stephanie (Tommy) Dorazo; great grandchildren, Jordan and Noelle. Also survived by several nieces and nephews.
