“ Bobby was a sweet gentleman. My parents lived two doors down from Bobby's parents who as little kids my sister and brother used to think were our grandparents. Bobby was so kind to us. On a summer day he took us for a ride in his new convertible while we sang songs played on the car radio. He did little acts of kindness that I remember fondly. He was a good friend to my mother "Betty". Always kind, always a smile, forever a gentleman! Theresa Smoot (Betty & Tom' Smoot's daughter)
