“ Ron and I worked together for a time when I was a young attorney. He was always willing to lend an ear and provide advice on cases. He often talked proudly about his children. He was a good guy and I'm very sorry for his friends and family.

“ Ron appeared in my courtroom many times in workers' compensation matters. He was always professional, courteous and pleasant, and always had a smile on his face. I know that he has been, and will continue to be, sorely missed by the workers' comp bar and judges in Philadelphia. May your wonderful memories give you strength and peace as you move through these tough times. - Sandra Craig
