

Rose P. Stefanelli

June 25, 1937 - June 12, 2022

Rose P. Stefanelli, a resident of the Kennedy House, Philadelphia, passed away on June 12 th , 2022, surrounded by loved ones.

Rose was born on June 25 th , 1937, in Newark, New Jersey to the late Phillip Mangiavillano and Victoria Mangiavillano, née Anello. She built her own businesses and career, which in 1999, led to her being awarded “most powerful woman in real estate.” Rose created a beautiful, loving family that will forever remember and cherish her memory. Her ability to make everyone feel loved and welcomed was unmatched. She had a radiance that shined like no other and a love that could warm your heart. All who had the privilege of knowing Rose knew just how joyful, funny, and giving she was. Rose always strove for excellence throughout her life. As a result, her grace, love, and style will never be forgotten.

Rose is predeceased by her husband, Gerard Stefanelli; daughter, Cheryl Stefanelli-Thomas; and brother, Salvatore Mangiavillano (Diane).

“ A week without you, a week without your phone calls, a week without your hugs and kisses. This has been the hardest time in my life. But knowing you are no longer in pain makes it all worth it. You are my sunshine, Rosie. And I know you'll shine down on us every day to come. I miss you so so much, my angel.
