What a great tribute Melissa and Anthony! I will always remember my sister as an honest, gentle person with a determination to do the right thing. Rosemary was a deeply spiritual person who served as a role model for her children and grandchildren. She also influenced many young people throughout her teaching career. Rosemary manifested kindness and goodness in her journey through life. Well done, good and faithful servant. Johnnie

My fondest memories of Rosemary go back to the 1970's when I married her brother John. She welcomed me into the family with her characteristic enthusiasm. We experienced parenthood around the same time, and a visit to Rosemary's with my children (John Michael and Karen) was indeed a highlight. Those were joy filled days with Rosemary, whom I remember as a model of graciousness. Rest In Peace. Joan

What a beautiful tribute to your mom, my friend. Rosemary always did her best!!! For her, life was all about living to the best of her ability. She was always encouraging and pushing me to keep persevering..... and she was always right. The harder I tried the easier things became. Her family was her greatest treasure after her Faith in God. Her positivity was contagious!!! I am so blessed to have been her friend and I will thank God everyday for the gift of Rosemary Goodwin!!! You are so blessed, too, to have her example and legacy of faithfulness and Love!!!

“ My fondest memories of Rosemary go back many years to the time my sisters Theresa, Kathleen, Dolores and I would visit the Lieb family on Windsor Ave. The photos on the video on this site of Rosemary in her school uniform are the ones that capture the Rosemary I knew then. It was always so much fun to sit in the little booth they had in the kitchen and talk and laugh with our cousins and then to run outside and play. Barbara was (to me) like a big sister; Joan was so funny and lively—and Rosemary was so kind to us and so sweet in her ways. She had that wonderful smile and she emanated an affection that felt so genuine. We didn’t visit as often as we would like, but we always enjoyed ourselves immensely and loved the feeling that we were part of a big family that included such wonderful cousins. Those Sunday afternoon visits occupy a permanent place in my heart, and Rosemary’s kindness and affection are essential parts of those memories. As we get older (and I’m one of Rosemary’s cousins in their seventies now) I think we hold these recollections among the most cherished parts of our lives. —Patricia Brady, Gloucester MA

“ Rosemary, we are forever friends! We were all so fortunate to know one another on Windsor Avenue- a priceless bond. Melissa, Anthony and all of Rosemary’s family, I am so sorry for your loss but you have had the most special gift in having her a part of your lives.

“ I am blessed to have had such a close bond with Aunt Rose. One fun memory that comes to my mind is when she was so excited to buy me a McDonalds coffee and get the senior citizens discount. I think she paid 65 cents for 2 nice sized cups. It really was a delicious cup of coffee! We were always laughing. When you were with her she made you feel like what was going on in your life was top priority. Never about her. You could ask but she turned the conversation right back to you. She took this cancer diagnosis so well. She would say this is God’s plan for me. I love you Aunt Rose and I will keep praying like you taught me!❤️🌹

“ I would love spending the night at Aunt Rosemary’s house! I enjoyed hanging with cousin Anthony & Melissa. She is one of the kindest women I know, never spoken a bad word about anyone! She always wanted to know my opinion about certain topics and I would give to her and then she gave me a hardy laugh. I am going to miss her very much and I know that she is joining her Mom. Dad and 2 sisters in heaven.
