

Susan Ursula Mooers

September 10, 1947 - September 25, 2024

Susan U. Mooers (Lynch) passed away on Wednesday, September 25, 2024.

She was born on September 10, 1947 to Mary (Doyle) and Hubert Lynch. She grew up in Clifton Heights and graduated from Villa Maria Academy and Ursinus College.

Her career was spent at Jefferson Medical doing basic muscle research which she loved.

Susan was an avid reader and enjoyed the time she spent as a docent at the Philadelphia Museum of Art. She was very active with the Stagecrafters in Chestnut Hill and wore many hats while involved there. She had a wonderful knowledge of art, music, and theater. She was in her glory when she was preparing a gourmet dinner for friends and family.

She is survived by her husband Thomas, her son Andrew, her sister Deborah Lynch Calgi (Ray) and a loving friend Babs.

She is predeceased by her parents, her beloved grandmother Ada Doyle and her brother Hubert (Chip) Lynch, Jr.

Burial: Private

Tribute Wall

DF

“ Susan joined my research lab at Jefferson in February 1974 and retired in 2014. She was an integral part of our research team — highly skilled, quick to learn and fun to work with. Importantly, Susan was a dear and treasured friend. Her brilliance in the arts and theater extended to her role as docent at the Philadelphia Museum of Art and participation in local theater. She will be remembered— and terribly missed.

Dr Marion J Siegman

Dr Marion J Siegman, PhD, MSci, FAPS - October 20, 2024 at 01:44 PM

JG

i worked at stagecrafters theater with susan for several years... she was brilliant and hilarious!! i will miss her.

janet gilmore - May 07 at 07:07 PM